MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

COMES NOW Douglas K. Handshoe, by and through his undersigned counsel of record, and files this, his Motion For Protective Order and in support thereof, would show unto this Court the following, to-wit:

I.

Defendant/Movant would show that the Plaintiff has scheduled his Judgment/Debtor Examination for Monday, August 14, 2017 on and after 1:30 p.m. in the Stone County Courthouse in Wiggins, Mississippi, pursuant to the directives of this Court's Order rendered herein on August 1, 2017.

II.

Defendant/Movant would further show that despite the Court having Quashed the Plaintiff/Respondent's Writ of Execution for the following described assets of Defendant/Movant, to-wit:

3. Any and all interest in the business known as Slabbed New Media, LLC, Business ID: 981555
4. Any and all interest in his accounting firm known as Douglas K. Handhoe, CPA PLLC, Business ID: 1059593; in the Court's Order rendered herein on August 1, 2017, as aforesaid, the Plaintiff/Respondent has included within their requests for production accompanying the Plaintiff/Respondent's Amended Notice of Judgment/Debtor Examination documentation for the assets hereinbefore described in the majority of the Plaintiff/Respondent's list for production.

III.

Defendant/Movant would show that since the assets of Slabbed New Media, LLC and Douglas K. Handshoe, CPA, PLLC are not subject to execution or attachment under applicable Mississippi law, the Defendant/Movant should not be required to produce the documents and records for the same at the Judgment/Debtor Examination to be conducted by the Plaintiff/Respondent.

IV.

Defendant/Movant would further show that to the extent that Plaintiff/Respondent seeks specific information relating to and concerning the Defendant/Movant's accounting practice, such information is privileged under the Mississippi Rules of Evidence and should not be disclosed through the production requested by the Plaintiff/Respondent herein.

V.

Defendant/Movant would further show that the Plaintiff/Respondent's efforts to secure documentation and information about Defendant/Movant's business records is not sought for purposes of collection of the underlying Judgment rendered for the benefit of the Plaintiff/Respondent, but for purposes by the Plaintiff/Respondent of seeking to ruin and destroy the Defendant/Movant's accounting business.

VI.

Defendant/Movant would further show that there are multiple cases in litigation between Plaintiff's and Defendant in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi and to date the Plaintiffs/Respondents have ignored or refused to comply with the Orders of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi rendered in such litigation.

WHEREFORE, the Defendant/Movant, Douglas K. Handshoe, prays that this Court upon consideration of his Motion for Protective Order shall issue its Protective Order limiting the Plaintiffs/Respondents from seeking production of any records or documentation relating to the businesses identified as Slabbed New Media, LLC and further Douglas K. Handshoe, CPA, PLLC; and this Court will further prohibit and restrict the Plaintiffs/Respondents from publishing the transcript of the Judgment/Debtor Examination to be taken herein upon the Internet or otherwise.
